

Blue Thumb Garden Party

Yard and garden information that protects water quality was shared at a “Blue Thumb Garden Party” May 19 at Creekside Park in Canby. Topics included rain barrels, composting, landscaping, rain gardens, and more. The event was a joint project of the Lac qui Parle, Yellow Medicine, & Lincoln SWCDs and the Lac qui Parle YellowBank Clean Water Partnership, with assistance from the Natural Resources Conservation Service.